BIOGRAPHY

After finishing her degree at the University of Nevada, Reno, Alison developed her skills in management and process improvement at the higher education level. She worked for 8 years at the University's "Knowledge Center" and brought that expertise to Northern California to benefit her family's business in 2011. She has experience working with many different industries, but has found her passion in developing tailored insurance programs for her clients.

She is steadily becoming involved in local community groups and industry associations:

- The Capital Region Family Business Center
- BOMA (Building Owners and Managers Association)
- IREM (Institute for Real Estate Management)

As an active resident of Reno, Nevada, Alison proudly assists clientele in various states. She also works diligently in developing relationships with local non-profits and community groups.

She is in the process of obtaining her AINS designation (Associate in General Insurance) from the American Institute for Chartered Property Casualty Underwriters.

Alison lives in Reno, Nevada with her husband Dan. They adore their son, Isaac, and tolerate their cat named "Egg". She enjoys gourmet cooking, music and cinema as well as spending time with her family and friends.
