BIOGRAPHY

Damarie “Dee” Cotto is a proud mother, a veteran of the US Army and has over 30 years’ experience as a Claims Specialist. She is originally from New York and graduated from Hunter College with a BS in Computer Science/math and enjoys taking on new challenges, working as part of a collaborative team and being part of the creative process.

Her areas of expertise include handling medical malpractice claims in the U.S. and Puerto Rico and Long-Term Claims (complex nursing home and assisted living facilities) in the past 10 years. Dee has handled multi-state claims to include Auto, General Liability, mostly Third- Party Property Claims, Environmental Claims, Construction Defect, Products Liability, Liquor Law/Dram Shop, New York Labor Law 200 & 241 and others. She also has strong experience as a Claims Advocate on Commercial Trucking, Hospitality, Real Estate Owner or Manager, Retail Businesses and others.

While at AIG she was a founding member and participated in the Employee Mentor Training Program and more recently while at CNA served as a Subject Matter Expert in Cross Training Programs, and spearheaded Monthly Claims Adjuster Meeting.

Dee resides in Winter Park, Florida with her dog “Chance”. In her spare time, Dee enjoys spending time with family and friends, long walks on the beach, hiking, camping and being outdoors surrounded by nature.
